97th Birthday, 65 Years Married — It was a double celebration Saturday when Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nugent, Lindsay district, observed their 65th wedding anniversary and Mr. Nugent his 97th birthday. Scores of friends and members of the family added their congratulations and sampled the three-story cake Mrs. Nugent baked specially for the occasion.

Oct. 20, 1946.

All Children Present On 65th Anniversary

Lindsay, Oct. 20 (Staff). — Yesterday was a big day for Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nugent when family and friends joined in celebrating with them their 65th wedding anniversary at their farm near here. It was a joint celebration, for Mr. Nugent was observing his 97th birthday as well.

All five of their children were present in the evening with grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Neighbors and friends from the community dropped in with regularity throughout the day to add their congratulations.

In the centre of the dinner table was a huge, three-tiered cake which Mrs. Nugent herself had baked for the occasion. Although in her 82nd year, Mrs. Nugent still does all her own housework and baking—with a little help from her husband, of course.

Extremely active for his advanced years, Mr. Nugent does most of the lighter chores around the house while his son, Manley, does the heavier work. "He is a man of action," Manley declared. "He keeps busy himself, and he finds too much for me to do." Mr. Nugent's keen interest in the work around the farm presents a problem for his wife who confided she always had to guard against letting him overdo it.

A Keen Gardener

A lover of flowers, Mr. Nugent's well-kept garden is one of his main interests. He is an avid radio fan too, but finds little in modern jazz music to his liking. But the radio helps keep him in touch with world events and for that reason he listens to it constantly.

Mr. Nugent claims his longevity and excellent health are due to hard work, the fact that he has never smoked, does not drink, and gets to bed early. During his many years as a farmer, he has watched the gradual revolution in farm implements, having used everything from the hand cradle to modern binders and mowers, and has plowed with oxen, horses and the modern tractor.

It was on an autumn day 65 years ago that Mr. and Mrs. Nugent were married in Midland. They resided on Manvers farm near Omeme until 14 years ago when they moved to their Lindsay district farm. A life-long Orangeman, Mr. Nugent follows the Conservative line in politics, and with Mrs. Nugent attends the United Church. Their children are Mrs. Herbert Brown, Lakefield; Mrs.

John Roberts, Omeme; Miss Eva Nugent, Toronto; Manley Nugent, Lindsay, and Robert A. Nugent of Lindsay.

Louis Budenz' denunciation of Gerhard Eisler, alias Harry Gold, as the "agent of the Kremlin" who directs Communist activities in the United States, raises an interesting question—who are Mr. Budenz' friends in, or with influence at, the American State Department?

For one thing said by Mr. Budenz may be misleading. Eisler (or, as Mr. Berger) was not an unknown figure. He was a well-known Communist whose international activities in the conspiratorial world of Communist propaganda have been known to intelligence services charged with the task of keeping track of such things. Yet he was in this country in 1941, more than a transit visa having been interned for a short time on Ellis Island by the State Department.

After Eisler left Paris, the Russo-Germans made, and thereafter the Communists were secure. In France, the defeatist, a fact that made him a man refugee—Jew or otherwise—into a situation after war broke out he was interned at the camp of Werker, was freed with a Mexican visa. Now the United States visa is difficult to obtain for a known member time, when communism was detonated in Petrograd and Moscow. Do not suppose that you can tame a cyclone; it just cannot be done. . . .

Of course, like most world religions (and all the very strong ones), communism has its slogans.

Capitalism Last Stage

Capitalism is the final development in the pre-historic stage of human society. Capitalism produced and was produced by the middle class (that gentlemen, is us); and as agents of capitalism the middle class first proved what man can do. This class wrought miracles much greater than the pyramids, the Roman aqueducts, or the cathedrals of Christian Europe. Its main work has been to create means of production stronger and more gigantic than anything in the record of mankind.

Now that these means of production have been placed at the service of mankind, it is time to dispossess the middle class. It is inevitable, too, that the middle class shall be destroyed. For the same historical process which produced the middle class, produced at the same time the working class or proletariat, and between these two classes there is a fundamental antagonism so deep, as to make any compromise unthinkable.

Doctrine of Class War

Between these two classes there is, and always must be, war—perpetual war. The key fact of our age is the class war: an endless process permitting no truce, and admitting no mercy. The means of production, originally created, and now controlled by the middle class, must be taken from them forcibly. To complete the social revolution, just one more thing is needed. The

BAKER — NUGENT
NUGENT — FURRS 1938

On Monday, December 26th, a very interesting and pretty yuletide double-wedding was solemnized at the Bay Parsonage, Napanee, when Miss Emma Eureka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Nugent, R.R. No. 2, Napanee, Ont., became the bride of Mr. Robert Archie Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Baker of the Township of Goulbourne, in the County of Carleton, Ont. and Miss Wilma Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Furrs of the Township of North Fredericksburgh, in the County of Lennox, was united in marriage to Mr. Earl Wartman Nugent of R.R. No. 2, Napanee, Ont.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. C. McCallum. Miss Nugent

SECRETARY, LONDON & MIDDLESEX
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

LONDON, CANADA May 1, 1939.

Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ont.

Dear Dr. Burleigh;

My humble apologies for my long delay in replying to your letter of Jan. 18th, in which you enclosed data on the Nugent family.

I have been making an attempt to follow up the leads contained therein, of which the most important would seem to be the John Nugent who died in 1863 at Bath. The dates given on the tombstone ^{of} ~~were~~ his birth and death, ~~and~~ are slightly at variance with the information I already have regarding the family of John Nugent sr. John Nugent sr. was married to Elenor Carson on July 14, 1800, (quoting from data contained in your notes), and the John Nugent buried at Bath was apparently born about April of the same year, so unless the cemetery record is in error, it hardly seems likely that he could be the son of the John Nugent sr.

If you could turn up anything additional regarding the Nugents in your part of the country, I would very much appreciate hearing from you.

With very many thanks for the kind assistance you have given me, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

H. Orlo Miller.

Dear Dr Burleigh:

I am only too glad to give you such information as I have been able to collect regarding the Nugent family. Unfortunately I have been located at too great a distance from the source of information to do much personal work. I left Ontario almost 39 years ago and have only returned for a few days or weeks at a time on an average of three or four years.

My great grandfather - Francis Nugent - came to Ontario about the year 1826 when my grandfather James Nugent was about 7 years of age. He was born May 19 - 1819. He had at least 3 brothers and 3 sisters. He was married to Ann Patton. To them were born 6 sons and 4 daughters. My father was the third eldest.

Not knowing how my great grandfather reached Ontario - whether by way of St Lawrence or from the U.S. I have been unable to trace our relationship with Thomas and Eleanor Morgan Nugent or their John and Margaret Carson Nugent who lived in Prince Edward County and later moved west to Belmont, Ontario.

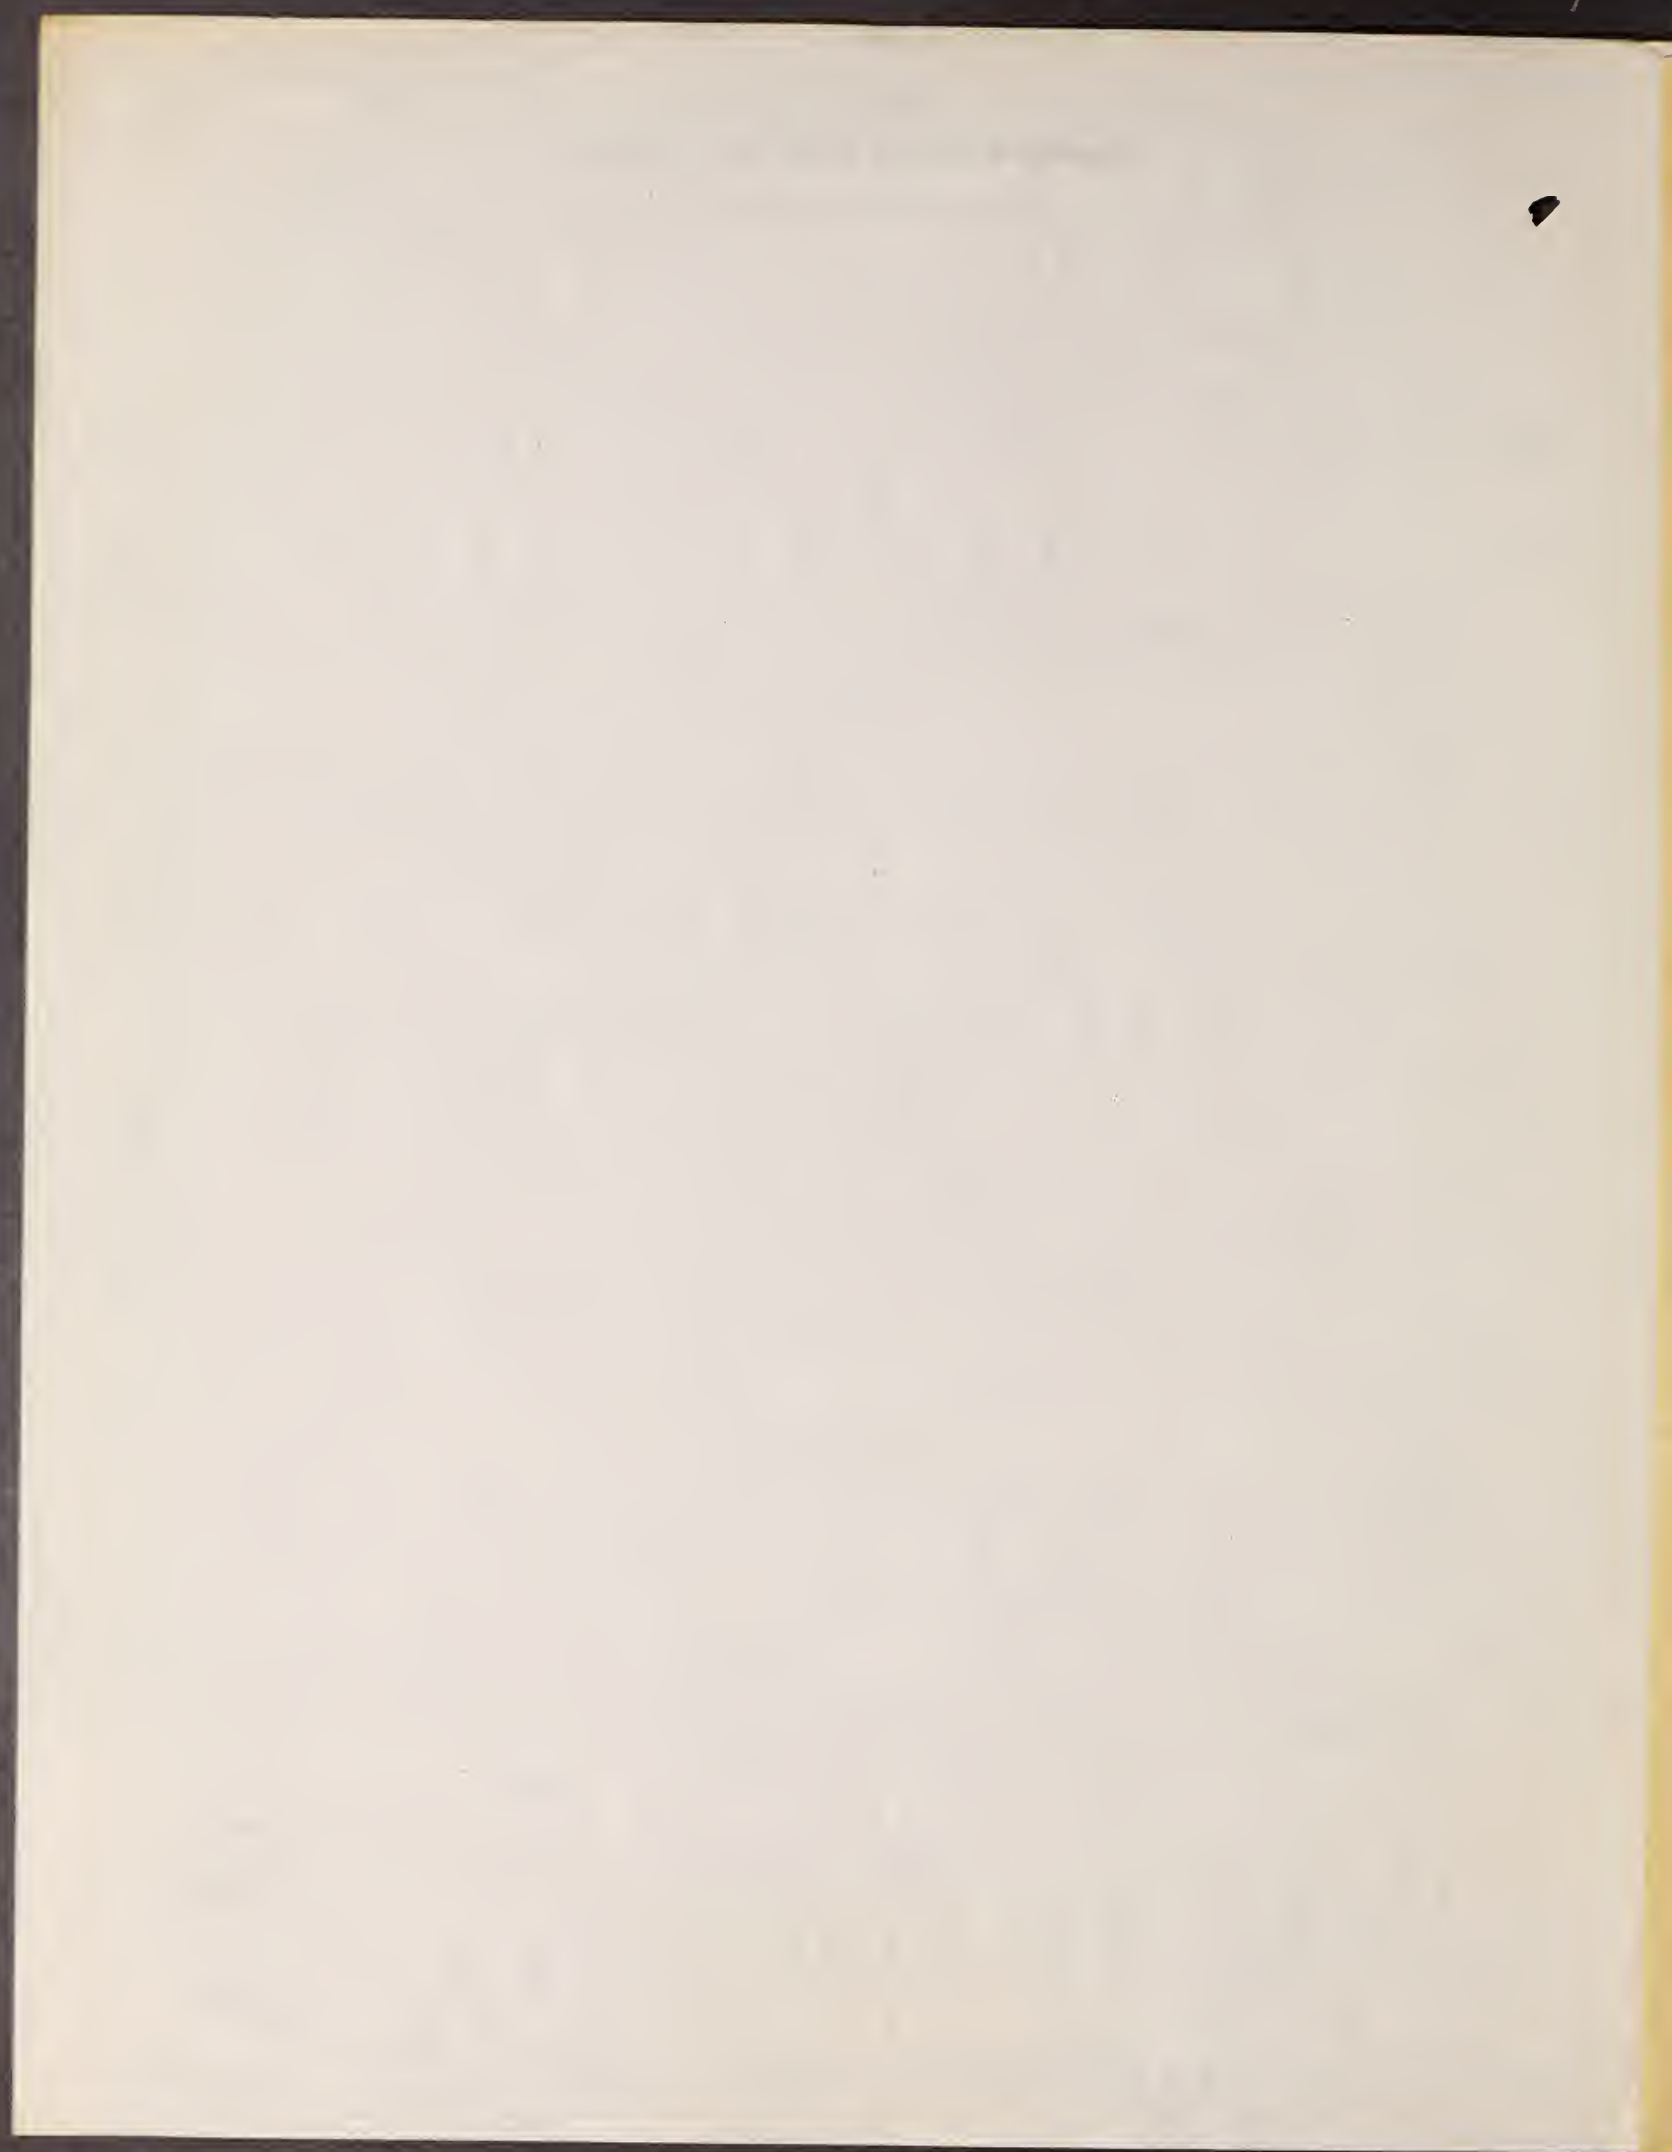

I do not know where my great grandfather lived - nor where he is buried. In middle life my grandfather lived in the Cobourg - Port Hope vicinity and later near Bethany, in which cemetery he was buried in 1902. The supposition is that as a boy he lived farther East - may be in Prince Edward County as there was a belief that there existed a relationship of some sort between the families. Both families came from the same part of Ireland namely the Northern part of County Westmeath or the County of Lavan.

Most of my work (?) has been in tracing the present families of the Nugents at the present time. If I can be of any help to you by giving any specific information on our branch of the family, I shall be glad to do so to the best of my knowledge. If you have any information that would be of value to me, I shall be glad to receive the same.

Yours truly

M. E. Nugent

P.S. My uncle - Francis Nugent - a Methodist preacher was in the Bay of Quinte Conference for a number of years prior to 1900 - (maybe around 1875) and I believe was Conference President.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:-

I have your kind letter of December 5th., 1938, and wish first of all, to express my thanks for your kind offer of assistance in my search for Nugent data. After having followed many false leads, I feel that the information you have it in your power to give, is just what I have been looking for.

Now for the facts. John Nugent, supposedly son of Viscount Robert Smith Nugent, settled in Upper Canada about 1790, first in Hamilton township, Northumberland county, and later in Marysburgh township, Prince Edward County, where he married Elinor, daughter of Capt. Wm. Carson, U. E. L. Nugent apparently operated a mill in Marysburgh in 1801. By his marriage to Elinor Carson, which occurred in 1800, there were two sons - William and John. Shortly after the birth of John, Mrs. Nugent died, and John N. married secondly her sister Margaret Carson. By this marriage there were the following children:- Mary M., Henry B., Thomas, Samuel E., Daniel B., Ellen, Elizabeth and Phoebe. Thomas Nugent married Eleanor Ann Morgan, July 29, 1841. In 1851-2 he moved to North Dorchester township, Middlesex county, south of this city, where he founded the present village of Belmont. Henry B. Nugent married Miranda Hart, Dec. 22, 1840. I know nothing regarding the remaining children.

It is my opinion that some of John Nugent's children may have settled in your vicinity. For that reason, copies of the inscriptions on the Nugent stones in your local cemetery will be of great value to me. Also the names and addresses of, and family data regarding, any Nugents now living in your section of the country who may be descendants of John Nugent. I only hope that I will not be trespassing too much on your kindness if I ask you to secure this data for me.

You mention that the name Nugent does not occur on the U. E. L. lists. That is so, but in Lorenzo Sabine's "Loyalists" a brief mention is made of John Nugent, 2nd deputy in the office of the inspector of imports and exports at New York in 1777. I have every reason to believe that this John Nugent is the Prince Edward settler. Again, in 1795, one Oliver Nugent, apparently a relative of Sir Nicholas Nugent, Governor of the island of Antigua in the British West Indies, petitioned the Land Board of Upper Canada for a grant for himself and also for a family of Nugents, among whom was a John Nugent. The personal grant he intended to settle with emigrants from Europe. In answer to his petition, the Board granted him 64,000 acres for himself for the purposes specified and 2,000 acres each for the Members of the Nugent family on whose behalf he petitioned. So you can see that the family was indeed an influential one.

Incidentally, according to my present information, John Nugent was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., son of "Viscount" Robert Smith Nugent and Phoebe Pearsol. It is my hope that some one of the surviving descendants of John Nugent may possess a family Bible or some other record that will verify the rather vague information I now possess, and extend it.

Again thanking you for your kind offer, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

H. Orlo Miller.
